

The Chiltern HILLS

SUPERB ESCAPES - DISCOVER MORE - DO MORE

NEW 2012 Day Walk Programme is now available. See right for details.

Walk in the Chilterns, England. Walkfree Breakfree is an outdoor business based in the beautiful Chiltern Hills, which is one of the UK's best and most outstanding Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB). It delivers excellent, easily accessible four-season walks and we want to encourage you into our Chiltern Hills.

For those of you who have never previously walked in the Chilterns with Walkfree Breakfree then please do join us on one of our Chiltern Day Walks, for you it is 100% free – yes free as we know you will enjoy the Chilterns and the walk and if it encourages you back we will be happy.

Enjoyed your Chiltern Day walk last time and back for more. Fantastic we will charge you a small fee of £5 per person for the walk and a voluntary contribution at your discretion towards the fuel if we have picked you up in our minibus from a local station. But here is a tip – do look out for voucher offers and adverts during the year that will allow you to enjoy more free Chiltern walks.

Visit the Chilterns – it's just so easy and accessible and especially from London, visiting or on an Olympic Break you can jump on a Chiltern Line or Metropolitan tube and we will, if we can, pick you up from a nearby railway station – just remember your sandwiches, boots and clothing for fair weather or foul!

As a walking company we organise short breaks and holidays throughout the UK, but being based in the beautiful Chilterns we are determined to offer visitors an interesting and delightful range of short walking breaks and holidays in a diverse and culturally outstanding area.

Join us and enjoy the great beech trees, the flora and fauna, spot the majestic red kites that sweep and twirl overhead; walk parts of the Ridgeway a national long distance trail an ancient trading route; stroll along a section of Shakespeare's Way as it winds its way from Shakespeare's birthplace Stratford on Avon to the Globe Theatre in London; or walk on sections of our very own Chiltern Way a 172 mile spectacular walk that is a rover's delight. With us you will discover tiny hamlets and old churches, reflect on life as you stand in the grounds of iron-age forts or over a refreshing English beer in one of our quaint and traditional English country pubs; and admire truly great homes and estates.

Chiltern Walking Holidays and Chiltern Tours are on offer during 2012, whether for a day walk or holidays do join Walkfree Breakfree in the Chiltern Hills, UK – you will not be disappointed!

Full information on our Chiltern, Thames and Oxford guided walking holiday programme please visit our website www.walkfreebreakfree.co.uk.

THE Chiltern HILLS – SUPERB ESCAPES – DISCOVER MORE – DO MORE

Day Walks for singles, couples and groups

2012 Programme

Our ethos at Walkfree Breakfree is to encourage participation and we do hope you will join one of our Chiltern Day Walks available during weekends and midweek. If it is your first walk with us is 100% free and if you are back for more walks then it is only £5 per person. Please do register on our mailing list and download our Chiltern day walk programme.